

B2 LEVEL

According to the CECRL, 200 to 250 hours of learning are necessary to obtain level B2

Common European Framework of reference for languages (CEFR)

- You can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation.
- You can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.
- You can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

Self Led Learning Recommendations

We recommend you spend 5-20 minutes of self-led study, which involves:

- Homework,
- Re-applying the material looked at in class in everyday life.
- To interact with different resources and expose oneself to movies, tv series, music and news publications.
